

I pay for my right to listen to XM. I pay for this service because it is a quality media. I derive benefit from the quality content that is delivered to my vehicle. I especially like the weather and traffic channels. I choose to listen to this service with my own hard earned dollars. Please do not bend to the wishes of the National Association of Broadcasters. There's a reason I do not listen to regular broadcast radio.